

Democratic Party of Lane County

Resistance Summer Organizing Intern

Are you looking for an opportunity to break into politics? Do you want to establish lasting connections and gain campaign experience?

The Democratic Party of Lane County (DPLC) is currently accepting applications to its political internship program. The DPLC works to elect progressive leaders and enact political change in Eugene, Springfield and Lane County. We are a volunteer-driven organization that succeeds by bringing folks together to fight for our shared values. All internships are unpaid, though we are happy to work with your university, college or high school so you can receive academic credit.

DPLC Interns will be primarily working to organize for social justice causes and lay the groundwork for the 2018 campaign by organizing around Resistance Summer. We're seeking hard working and goal-oriented individuals who are eager to develop skills in the political organizing.

Although no prior experience is needed, you can expect to commit 10 hours per week to your internship with the DPLC.

As a DPO intern, you will gain experience:

- Advocating in public on Democratic Party priority issues;
- Building core organizing skills, such as canvassing and phonebanking;
- Developing networks with political leaders and community members ;
- Organizing volunteers for campaign and community action projects; and
- Getting out the vote for Democrats by talking to voters right now!

To apply for an internship with the DPLC, please submit a resume with two references and a one-page cover letter detailing your interest and qualifications to Sierra Dameron, DPLC Summer Resistance Organizer, at sierra.dameron@gmail.com.

The Democratic Party of Oregon is committed to a diverse, multicultural work environment. People of color, people with disabilities, and people of diverse sexual orientations, gender expressions and gender identities are encouraged to apply.
